

Robert Gordon University – External Examiner Roles

The School of Nursing and Midwifery, Faculty of Health and Social Care of Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen is seeking to appoint an external examiners for the following programme:

- MSc Advancing Nursing Practice. This programme has five routes and this external examiner post would focus on some of the generic modules and the modules within the clinical practice and leadership routes. If you would like information regarding this post please contact: Dr. Heather Bain, Senior Lecturer. Heather.bain@rgu.ac.uk

The external examiner role involves the approval of instruments of assessments, moderating samples of work, attending Assessment Boards and ensuring that standards of award at RGU are comparable with other institutions. The appointment will be with effect from 1st October 2017 until 30 September 2021.

Programme details will be provided to the appointee and a full induction day will be offered. We would welcome expressions of interest from academics committed to developing the quality of teaching, learning and assessment. Interested individuals are required to send a copy of their CV also for consideration.

Closing Date: 28th February